Mihály Messinger was crop-tradesman in Szenc.

Mariska Messinger was dental-technician and lived in Kőszeg with her husband.

József Kolisch first lived in Nagyfödemes then moved to Pest end worked as candy-maker in Király utca. He invested his money, which was the price of a two-storied house, in military-loan. Finally could by nothing on it but a broom and a bucket.

The letter F. in the name of Elemér F. Antal stands for Felsőgelléri, which is a title of nobility

Madeline stayed at Annus néni's when she visited Hungary

Edit went to Canada after '45.

Bandi Szamek was killed in World War I.

Gusztáv Szamek was born in 1867 in Nyitra. Went to Törökbecse and worked as lawyer there. He went to Canada in 1932 after Hermin's death.

Erzsébet Szamek was born in 1895 in Törökbecse. Married Sándor Kelen (born Sándor Klein). They moved to Canada in the '20s (Belleville, Ontario) where Sándor worked in the Corby-distillery. After Dezsó's death (he died in a car accident while his wife was driving) they moved to Montreal.

Ignác Kisch (father of Kiss Béla György (Bernáth)) was born in 1848 in Óbuda. He was a Hebrew cloth-painter (képfestő). He served for 10 years in the 32nd Hungarian Royal-Imperial Regiment as infantryman, than served as soldier in the 63rd Regiment. Took part in the campaign of '66 and demobilized in 1876. Later he worked in Óbuda in a cardboard-maker company as painter.

Béla György (born Bernáth) Kiss was born in 1877 and had 7 siblings. He helped his family, worked as teacher, civil servant. Later he got a university degree in public administration in Kolozsvár and worked as secretary at the stock exchange court. He went into exile to Vienna in 1922. He got divorced in 1913.

György Szamek was in prison for his communist views. He left Szeged to Rome, later Bologna than Zurich where he worked as chemist.

Hugó Szamek had a motorboat

Józsa Lóvy (Hugó Szamek's wife) met an earl during the war and went away with him.

Ilona Szamek and Jenő Junker lived at Szt. István körút before the I. WW.
